New Curriculum Day Monday 5th September

Attendance Excursion 26th July, 2016

Favourite things on our attendance excursion.

Peter: The bus was fun, I got to talk and I got to see Eureka Tower and the police.

Mobina: The boat ride was my favourite, because we got to go to the back of the boat and see the water.

Bijila: The games in Screen world at ACMI were my favourite. I learnt how technology came to be.

Melissa: I saw graffiti walls. The people needed a little skill.

Amina: How did people get up high to do the painting?

Stevie: I liked playing in the playground. There was a swing that three people could sit on.

Christina: I didn’t know there was Graffiti Art in the city.

Aisiri: They have a special way to clean the Yarra River.

Lakshethaa: One bridge was built by women.

Pooja: I found out about Federation Square.

Amina: There was a spinning plate in Screen world that only worked if you looked through the little slits.

Cyrus: There’s so many stairs at Federation Square.

The Zoo

Oh why do I have to go to the zoo?

I seriously have so much to do,

The monkeys have the colours, black and brown,

They hang by trees but never fall down,

I saw the giraffe, with its neck really tall,

While the hippo’s neck was really small,
I really kind of like this place now,
Even the cute little dairy cow,
But sadly I know the day is done,
And also I had lots of fun.

The Outback
I love going to the outback,
With a tent, a backpack & my friend Jack,
We travel left and we travel right,
We might find a large termite,
We’re so happy, we’ve had so much fun,
Sadly though our day is done,
So round the campfire we get fed,
Tired now, we go to bed.

My Life on the Farm
We live on a farm that’s very nice,
In the morning I eat gravy and rice,
My jobs may seem hard but it’s a lot of fun,
In no time at all my jobs will be done,
I quickly feed the gentle horse some hay,
I run on the soft grass, shouting, “Hooray”,
I go inside to sip my soothing tea,
It’s been prepared, nice and hot, just for me,
Then I go outside and feed the cheeky bunny,
He gives me a nudge, he is really funny,
Then I feed the lonely little pig,
He snorts happily when I give him a fig,
Finally it is the end of the day,
So I go outside, to run and play.

Zoo

The sky was blue,
And I went to the zoo,
On the way,
I saw Jay,
In a stable was a horse eating hay,
My little sister called out, “Hooray”,
The zookeeper let the elephant free,
But the elephant broke the smallest tree,
Then we saw a male lion eating its prey,
While my family was lying in the horses’ hay,
My mum asked the zoo keeper, “Where are the rabbits?”
“Sorry, they’re gone. Rabbits have bad habits.”

The Farm
I went to a farm,
I jumped in the barn,
The chicks were squished in there,
With not much fresh air,
The are lots of chicks I’d like to meet,
But soon enough, they’ll be good to eat.

Outback
I’m headed for the outback,
I’m going with my best friend Jack,
We climbed higher and higher,
Then made a warm campfire
I have a yummy snack,
I’m going to eat with Jack,
I’m going to have a hike,
While riding my old bike,
Then in the muddy creek,
I hear a little squeak,
Now it’s time to go,
Hang on, mum said, “No.”

Outback
I’m going to the outback,
I’ve got my tent and backpack,
I’m going into the trees,
And to my surprise, begin to sneeze,
I begin to unpack,
I leave with Jack,
We cook marshmallows on a fire,
The flames get higher and higher,
The next day we do what I like,
Jay, Jack and I go for a hike,
I love the lovely, fresh breeze,
Best of all, there are lots of trees.

Outback
I’m going to the outback,
I’ve packed my blue, backpack,
I get my tent and put it up,
Then have a drink in my cup,
I have a tasty, tasty snack,
I pull out of my backpack,
I go back home and have a laugh,
Now I’m going to have a bath.

The Zoo
I’m heading for the zoo,
Do you want to come too?
At the zoo we saw an angry bull,
I wasn’t scared, it was really cool,
The lions were yellow and very hairy,
People thought they were all so scary.

The Farm
Hey everyone my name is Hassan,
I went to the farm and I heard an alarm,
I take the sheep to the shed,
Now they can, go to bed,
In the morning we play Loop the Hoop,
And I went in to eat some soup,
At the farm was a sheep dog,
She rounded sheep I the fog,
I saw a really strong bull,
My day at the farm was really cool.

Olympic Games–Rio 2016
Heming Hu is a former student of Lyndale Greens Primary and table tennis is his sport. He will make his Olympic debut at the Rio 2016 Games in the men’s teams event after performing strongly at the Australian Olympic Trials.

Hemming began playing table tennis when he was seven in his family garage and after his brother got involved in the local Dandenong competition. He made his first Commonwealth Games appearance in Glasgow in 2014. He competed in the men’s doubles, the mixed doubles and in the team event.

We wish Hemming all the very best for his competitions in Rio!

100 Days of School Celebration
On Wednesday the 27th of July the Grade Prep students had a lovely day celebrating 100 days at school.

Lots of parents and family members came to join in the fun! We watched a slide show of all of our favourite memories from our first year at Lyndale Greens Primary School.

The Prep teachers would like to thank all of the parents, carers and family members for all of their ongoing support, and for attending our 100 days of school celebration.
